Cancer Research UK agrees to publish the Contribution in British Journal of Cancer, if the Authors grant Cancer Research UK a licence as defined below.

1. The licence will run for the full term of copyright in the Contribution and any extensions to that copyright. The licence gives Cancer Research UK the following rights throughout the world:

   (b) the right to translate the Contribution into other languages, create adaptations, summaries or extracts of the Contribution or other derivative works based on the Contribution and exercise all of the rights set forth in (a) above in such translations, adaptations, summaries, extracts and derivative works;
   (c) the right to license others to do any or all of the above.

If Cancer Research UK agrees to publish any Supplementary Information with the Contribution, the Authors grant Cancer Research UK the same rights in the Supplementary Information, on a non-exclusive basis, for the same term.

2. Authors retain the rights set out in either Clause 3 or Clause 4 below, but not both.

3. For Authors who do not choose BJC Open, or for manuscripts to which this choice does not apply, it is agreed that the licence granted in Clause 1 above is granted on an exclusive basis.
   (i) Ownership of copyright remains with the Authors. All the Authors named above agree and will make their best efforts to ensure that:
      (a) the Contribution will not be reproduced, in whole or in part prior to formal publication in British Journal of Cancer;
      (b) whenever they reproduce the Contribution or extracts from it, the Authors will acknowledge first publication in British Journal of Cancer and include a full reference, DOI, and wherever possible a hyperlink link to the published article on the BJC website.
   (ii) If they comply with Clauses 3(1)(a) and 3(1)(b) above, the Authors shall retain the following non-exclusive rights:
      (c) they may reproduce the Contribution in whole or in part in any printed volume (book or thesis) of which they are the author(s);
      (d) they and any academic institution where they work at the time may reproduce the Contribution for the purpose of course teaching;
      (e) they may reuse figures or tables created by them and contained in the Contribution in other works created by them;
      (f) six months after publication of the printed edition of British Journal of Cancer in which the paper appears, if and only if, a hyperlink to the article on the BJC website appears with the article, Authors are permitted to post a copy of the peer reviewed version of their contribution (in Word or TeX format), exactly as accepted for publication:

(iii) twelve months after publication in British Journal of Cancer, the Contribution, as published on the BJC website, will be offered for reuse under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-Share-Alike 3.0 licence, subject to the conditions listed at http://creativecommons.org/licences/by-nc-sa/3.0/ and will be deposited into PubMed Central (PMC) in its final published form.

5. The Authors warrant and represent that:

(a) The Author who has signed this Agreement below has full authority to enter into this Agreement on behalf of all of the Authors who have each given their consent for the Contribution to be published in the final form and with the title that has been accepted for publication;
(b) All of the Authors have given their consent for the format of the names of the Authors and the order in which they appear to be published exactly as is written on this Agreement in the section "Authors" on the first page;

Copies of all such permissions are attached to this licence;
(e) All of the facts contained in the Contribution are true and accurate;
(f) Nothing in the Contribution is obscene, defamatory, libelous, violates any right of privacy or infringes any intellectual property rights (including without limitation copyright, patent or trademark) or any other human, personal or other rights of any person or entity or is otherwise unlawful;
(g) Nothing in the Contribution infringes any duty of confidentiality which any of the Authors may owe to anyone else or violates any contract, express or implied, of any of the Authors, and all of the institutions in which work recorded in the Contribution was carried out have authorised publication of the Contribution.

6. The Authors authorise Cancer Research UK, or its licencee, at its own expense, to take such steps as it considers necessary in the Authors' name and on their behalf, if it believes that a third party is infringing or is likely to infringe copyright in the Contribution.

7. The Authors hereby consent to the inclusion of electronic links from the Contribution to third-party material wherever it may be located, provided that the nature and purpose of these links have been generally approved by Cancer Research UK and that links will not be made directly from the Contribution on BJC's website to inappropriate sites, for example those sponsored by the tobacco industry, or to sites known to be linked to such sites.

8. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England without regard to the principles of conflicts of law. The parties hereto submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
