1. All information, text and other materials (“the Contribution”) submitted to Nature Methods Application Notes site, are the sole responsibility of the person/organisation from which the content originated. Therefore the author is entirely responsible for the Contribution submitted. NPG does not guarantee the accuracy, integrity or quality of the Contribution.

2. Ownership of copyright remains with the author. However you may not reproduce the Contribution in whole or in part in any printed book, journal or website in association with the Nature Methods logo, or referencing Nature Methods, without express permission from NPG.

3. By submitting an application note to NPG, the author grants NPG the royalty free right, in perpetuity, to use, modify, edit, publish, adapt, and create derivative works from such material worldwide in any media or technology.

4. NPG is under no obligation to publish or return any materials submitted.

5. NPG has the right to reject or remove any Contribution that violates the terms of this agreement or is otherwise objectionable in anyway, as determined by NPG.

6. The Author warrants that they are the sole authors of and sole owners of the copyright in the Contribution. If the Contribution includes other copyright materials, the Authors warrant that they have obtained the permission of the owners of the copyright in all such materials to enable them to grant the rights contained herein.

7. Contributions may not name competitive branded products or services. Any reference to such products or services in the contribution must be generic, and not brand specific.

8. The Author warrants that all the facts contained in the Contribution are fair and accurate.

9. Nothing in the Contribution infringes any duty of confidentiality which any of the Authors may owe to anyone else or violates any contract, express or implied, of any of the Authors, and all of the institutions in which work recorded in the Contribution was carried out have authorised publication of the Contribution.

10. NPG reserves the right to change the terms and conditions at any time by posting changes on the Nature Methods web site.

11. The Author accepting these terms and conditions warrants that they have full right, power and authority to enter into this Agreement on behalf of all of the Authors and their organizations.
