Supplementary Fig. 1. Experimental set-up for grating orientation task (GOT). (a) Gratings were placed in two orthogonal orientations relative to the long axis of the left index finger and (b) consisted of a set of eight hemispherical plastic domes. (c) Subjects’ left arm and finger were immobilized by a cast, while a tourniquet was placed around the right forearm.