Supplementary Fig. 4. Effect of pool size on correlations in population responses. Each curve shows the correlation between pooled responses as a function of pool size for different initial pairwise correlations between individual neurons (see Supplementary Methods, Eq. (6)). Dashed blue lines indicate the expected correlation between two neighboring 0.25 x 0.25mm pixels (see text).