Supplementary Figure 4. Comparison of LTQ and QSTAR acquisitions from equal gradient analyses. A representative gel fraction was analyzed in triplicate on LTQ and QSTAR mass spectrometers with the same parameters described in Materials and Methods, except using the same 90-minute gradient. Average numbers are plotted, plus and minus the maximum and minimum observations.