Supplementary Figure 1 | Building the ELP-intein expression construct. A library of ELP tags of various lengths were generated using recursive cloning in pUC-18. Once generated, the library was subcloned into pET-21 in fusion to an engineered self-cleaving mini-intein and a number of target proteins and expressed in E. coli BLR cells (Supplementary Methods online).