In the version of this article initially published, there were errors throughout equations and expressions where “ $\nabla \cdot$ ” and “ $\nabla \rho \cdot$ ” mistakenly appeared as “ $\nabla \times$ ” and “ $\nabla \rho \times$ ”. Also, in equations (7) and (8), two instances of “ \mathbf{v} ” are now correctly formatted as vectors. In the third paragraph of the “Three-gene simulation model” section, now reading in part “In this work, we used one set of parameters ... $\hat{\sigma}_c = 0.01$, $\hat{\sigma}_d = 0.014$,” the second expression has been added. Ref. 57, now shown as Qiu, Y. et al. Discrete Continuous Dyn. Syst. Ser. B. <https://doi.org/10.3934/dcdsb.2019144> (2019), replaces a reference from an earlier version of the paper (Wang, Y. et al. Exp. Dermatol. <https://doi.org/10.1111/exd.13909> (2019)). The changes have been made in HTML and PDF versions of the article.
