You are invited to attend a meeting which promises to be one of the highlights of 1996 for anyone with an interest in cancer.

A major 2 day conference with exhibition which will:

- Review the goals, impact and expectations of the Calman Report into UK oncology services one year on from its publication.
- Compare approaches to the management of cancer services within the UK and across the world.
- Generate cross-discipline debate and consensus on some key issues within the widespread groupings engaged in the provision of cancer services.

A faculty of international repute has been assembled and will include:
