Naturejobs launches The Source Event, a new Science Career Fair in 2007

Naturejobs is partnering with London First to organise The Source Event, a new dedicated Science Career Fair in 2007. The Source Event, to be held in London this September, will promote the UK and Europe as a great place to pursue a career in Science, be it in industrial research, research organisations or academia. It will present the best opportunities from the best organisations: public, private, national and international.

The Source Event will offer Employers, Recruiters and Training Providers an excellent opportunity to meet a diverse selection of quality candidates face to face.

Jobseekers will be able to meet with potential employers who are offering hundreds of genuine vacancies. There will also be a variety of informative and completely free seminars offering valuable career advice

To find out more information on how to take part in this new and exciting event please visit The Source Event website: <http://www.thesourceevent.com>
