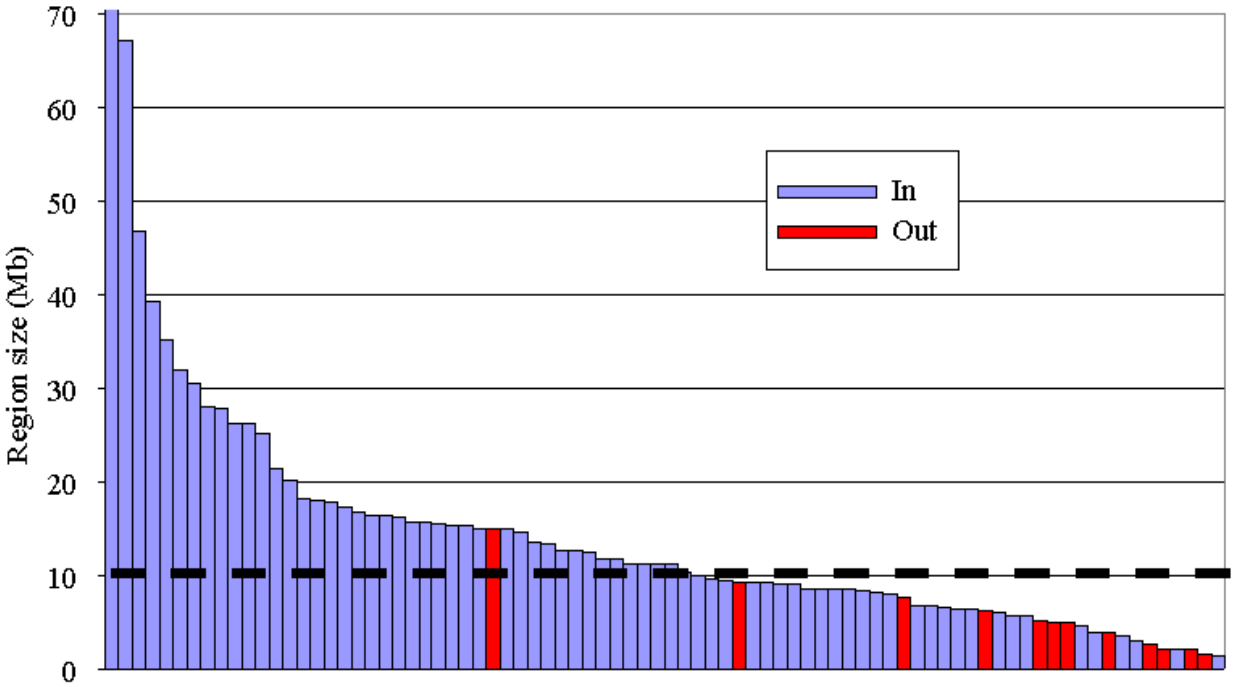
Web Figure B. Size distribution of the chromosomal regions associated to diseases .



Size distribution of the chromosomal regions associated to diseases and relative position of the corresponding disease related gene for the 100-disease benchmark. Blue bars: the disease gene was inside the region as described by the current cytogenetic map. Red bars: the disease gene was out of the region. Most cases (11 out of 12) were in regions of less than 10Mb.