

field of sulphate metabolism—Prof. K. S. Dodgson, Department of Biochemistry, University College of South Wales and Monmouthshire, St. Andrew's Place, Cardiff (November 10).

LECTURER (with an honours degree in psychology and preferably a higher degree) IN PSYCHOLOGY at the University of Queensland, Australia—The Secretary, Association of Commonwealth Universities (Branch Office), Marlborough House, Pall Mall, London, S.W.1 (London and Brisbane, November 13).

LECTURER IN PHYSICAL CHEMISTRY (Durban); and a LECTURER IN INORGANIC CHEMISTRY (Pietermaritzburg), University of Natal, South Africa—The Secretary, Association of Commonwealth Universities (Branch Office), Marlborough House, Pall Mall, London, S.W.1 (South Africa and London, November 14).

LECTURER or JUNIOR LECTURER IN THE BIOCHEMISTRY SECTION OF THE DEPARTMENT OF BOTANY, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa—The Secretary, Association of Commonwealth Universities (Branch Office), Marlborough House, Pall Mall, London, S.W.1 (South Africa and London, November 14).

ANALYTICAL CHEMIST (with experience in analytical chemistry, preferably on silicate materials) IN THE DEPARTMENT OF GEOPHYSICS, for work involving the chemical analysis of silicate materials, rocks, meteorites and minerals, both for major and trace element concentrations—The Bursar, Australian National University, Box 4, G.P.O., Canberra, Australia (November 30).

LECTURER (with a mathematical or physical background, preferably at doctoral level, and capable of teaching meteorology to postgraduates) in the field of meteorology IN THE DEPARTMENT OF GEOGRAPHY, University of Malaya—The Secretary, Association of Commonwealth Universities (Branch Office), Marlborough House, Pall Mall, London, S.W.1 (Malaya and London, November 30).

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR (with an honours degree in botany, a sound knowledge of two or more modern languages, ability to write good English, and preferably some editorial experience)—The Director, Commonwealth Bureau of Plant Breeding and Genetics, School of Agriculture, Downing Street, Cambridge (January 15).

AGRONOMIST (national of the United Kingdom or the Republic of Ireland, with a degree in agriculture or horticulture and at least two years experience in the field of experimentation or two years postgraduate training) in Tanganyika, to be responsible for a programme of field experimentation, often involving many district trials off the main research centres—The Appointments Officer, Room 301, Department of Technical Co-operation, Eland House, Stag Place, London, S.W.1, quoting Ref. RC.213/173/06.

ASSISTANT or ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR IN THE DEPARTMENT OF BIOCHEMISTRY—Dr. M. Blancher, Department of Biochemistry, Faculty of Medicine, University of Manitoba, Winnipeg 3, Manitoba, Canada.

CHIEF TOXICOLOGIST to take charge of the Toxicology Department; EXPERIMENTAL PATHOLOGISTS (preferably with experience of animal histopathology, tissue culture or immunological techniques); RESEARCH BIOCHEMISTS (preferably with experience in metabolic studies, biochemical pharmacology, enzyme biochemistry or connective tissue biochemistry)—The Secretary, British Industrial Biological Research Association, Woodmansterne Road, Carshalton, Surrey.

ELECTRONIC ENGINEER (preferably with H.N.C. in electronic or electrical engineering) IN THE DEPARTMENT OF PHARMACOLOGY, The Medical College of St. Bartholomew's Hospital, to assist in the design and construction of electronic apparatus used for research into drug action—The Clerk to the Governors, St. Bartholomew's Hospital, London, E.C.1, quoting Ref. PT/697.

GRADUATE RESEARCH STUDENT (recently graduated engineer (honours degree or Dip. Tech.) wishing to work for an M.Sc. or Ph.D. degree) IN THE MATERIALS GROUP of the Department of Civil and Mechanical Engineering to investigate the creep and high temperature properties of metals—The Secretary, Northampton College of Advanced Technology, St. John Street, London, E.C.1.

PASTURE RESEARCH OFFICER (national of the United Kingdom or the Republic of Ireland, with an honours degree in natural science, agriculture or agricultural botany and at least two years postgraduate work in pasture research) in Tanganyika, to study the means whereby annual production can be increased through improvement in pastures and the consideration of how tropical grasslands can be managed in the context of local agriculture systems to give the maximum economic production without deterioration—The Appointments Officer, Department of Technical Co-operation, Eland House, Stag Place, London, S.W.1, quoting Ref. RC.213/173/04/6.

PLANT PATHOLOGISTS (nationals of the United Kingdom or the Republic of Ireland, with a degree in botany or natural science, and preferably specialist training or postgraduate experience in mycology, virology or plant pathology) in Northern Rhodesia, to investigate major diseases of crops of economic importance and to make recommendations based on experimental results—The Appointments Officer, Room 301, Department of Technical Co-operation, Eland House, Stag Place, London, S.W.1, quoting Ref. RC.213/132/07.

RESEARCH FELLOW (with a Ph.D. degree and preferably electrochemical or organic chemical experience) IN THE DEPARTMENT OF CHEMISTRY, for work in either of the fields of molten salt electrochemistry or the chemistry of coal components—The Secretary, Northampton College of Advanced Technology, St. John Street, London, E.C.1.

RESEARCH STUDENT IN GEOGRAPHY—The Registrar, The University, Hull. SOILS AGRONOMIST (national of the United Kingdom or the Republic of Ireland, with an honours degree in agriculture or horticulture with agricultural chemistry as the main subject, and preferably postgraduate experience in the field, experimental work concerning soil fertility and a knowledge of tropical soils and crops) in Sarawak, to design and conduct field experiments with a variety of tropical crops on selected soil types in order to assess the potentiality of the soils—The Appointments Officer, Room 301, Department of Technical Co-operation, Eland House, Stag Place, London, S.W.1, quoting Ref. RC.213/155/02.

TECHNICIAN (aged 30–40, with experience of routine chemical pathology, and preferably F.I.M.L.T. or equivalent), to take charge of routine laboratory services and to supervise junior staff in the Mineral Metabolism Unit—The Director, Medical Research Council, Mineral Metabolism Research Unit, The General Infirmary, Great George Street, Leeds.
