Following publication of the above editorial, the author discovered the following error:

In the second part of the third sentence of the first paragraph, it reads: ‘even though more than 40% of the Thomson-Institute for Scientific Information (T-ISI) listed articles originate from Latin America.’

It should instead read: ‘publications from Brazil correspond to more than 40% of the Thomson-Institute for Scientific Information (T-ISI) listed articles that originate from Latin America.’
