Oxford International Programme in Evidence-based Health Care, MSc in Evidence-based Health Care

This is a joint programme from Oxford University's Continuing Professional Development Centre and Department of Primary Health Care. It is offered as a part-time course consisting of six taught modules and a dissertation. The flexible structure of the course has been devised to fit with the structure of specialist training and to accommodate student choice.

The modules from the International Programme in Evidence-based Health Care can be taken as stand-alone short courses.

Available modules are:

- The Practice of Evidence-based Health Care (compulsory for MSc)
- Introduction to Study Design and Research Methods (compulsory for MSc)
- Clinical Epidemiology and Decision Making (Evidence in Practice)
- Ethics in Health Care
- Evidence-based Change
- Evidence-based Dentistry
- Evidence-based Diagnosis and Screening
- Further Practical Statistics
- Patient-based Evidence
- Qualitative Research Methods
- Randomised Controlled Trials
- Statistics for Health Researchers (online)
- Systematic Reviews
