Since the publication of this article, the authors have noticed a recurrent error that appeared in the online version of their paper.

The incorrect expansion was used throughout the article for the TRB3 acronym. The full name should have been given as the tribbles homolog 3 protein and not the telomere repeat binding factor 3.

This error has now been rectified, and the correct article appears in this issue. The html and online pdf versions have also been rectified, and now carry the correct paper.

The authors would like to apologize for this error.
