

FREE LITERATURE

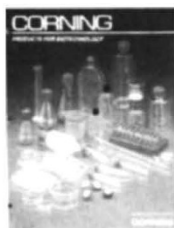

Instruments. The Scientific Instruments (Ringoos, NJ) 408-page 1986-87 catalog features supplies and services for GC/MS manufacturing including chromatography, vacuum, and spectrometry systems; lab, cleaning, and photographic supplies; and custom manufacturing and repair services.

Write in 701 on Reader Service Card

Columns and supplies. A 224-page analytical supplies catalog from Hewlett-Packard (Palo Alto, CA) describes chromatography columns and supplies for HP GC, LC, UV-Vis, and GC/MS instruments, as well as laboratory-robot supplies. Appendices include tables and a chromatographic term glossary.

Write in 702 on Reader Service Card

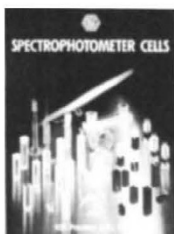

Tissue culture products. Corning Science Products (Corning, NY) catalogs its 96-well ELISA plates, 6- and 12-well sterile multiple well plates, pipets, Erlenmeyer flasks, improved caps and lids, and surfactant-free nylon membranes with extremely low extractables for plastic vacuum filters.

Write in 703 on Reader Service Card

Sensors and inspection instrumentation. Oriel Scientific (Surrey, U.K.) launches a newsletter reporting developments in optical sensors and inspection instrumentation.

Write in 704 on Reader Service Card

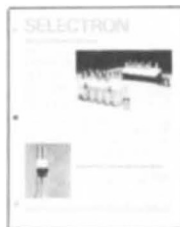

Filters. Poly-Fine® filter cartridges, described in a brochure from Filterite (Timonium, MD), include a 0.2 µm-rated cartridge of asymmetric polysulfone filter media providing an economic alternative to membrane filtration.

Write in 717 on Reader Service Card

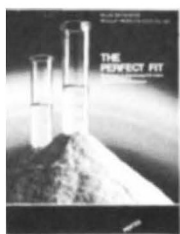

Lab equipment. Markson Science (Phoenix, AZ) features supplies and equipment for research, academic, and industrial laboratories, and quality/process control, in its 108-page 1987 color catalog.

Write in 706 on Reader Service Card

Vacuum filtration. Selectron® vacuum manifolds, designed to accelerate filtrations of samples 10 ml and less, are described in a data sheet from Schleicher & Schuell (Keene, NH). Applications include TCA precipitation, receptor binding assay, and elution and serial washing procedures.

Write in 707 on Reader Service Card

Albumins. Miles Diagnostics' (Kankakee, IL) Pentex® bovine albumins are cataloged to be custom suited, depending on degree of purification and processes used. Minute compositional differences affect suitability for given usages; major applications are listed.

Write in 718 on Reader Service Card

Stirrers. An eight-page catalog announces Techne's (Princeton, NJ) line of stirrers for suspension cell culture and microcarriers, and describes a method that aids attachment and promotes media circulation around the cells, encouraging high growth rates.

Write in 709 on Reader Service Card

Laser/optics. 250 high-precision laser/optics products are cataloged by Newport Corp. (Fountain Valley, CA), including optical spectrum analyzers, sub-arc-second optical mounts, and an electronic vibration isolation system. Also contained are tutorials and product selection guides.

Write in 705 on Reader Service Card

Chemicals. American Research Products (Solon, OH) catalogs over 300 biotechnology chemicals. Grade choices are available, and performance characteristics and assay information are provided. The chemicals, in research and bulk quantities, are custom packaged and shipped with certificates of analysis.

Write in 712 on Reader Service Card

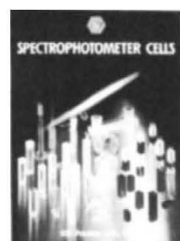

Antibodies. The 1987 Dako Corp. (Santa Barbara, CA) catalog offers over 550 antibodies, immunoenzymatic staining kits, and related products, including a larger selection of monoclonal antibodies. New is a line of systems for immunoturbidimetric quantitation of human serum proteins, with ready-to-use reagents.

Write in 713 on Reader Service Card

Sample preparation. Applied Separations (Bethlehem, PA) details methods allowing 30 solid phase samples to be processed as quickly as one in its Spe-ed™ applications bulletins.

Write in 708 on Reader Service Card

Spectrophotometer cells. NSG Precision Cells (Farmingdale, NY) lists almost 100 standard and anaerobic cells, available in optical, UV, IR, or ES quartz glass, in its illustrated catalog. Included is a table of transmission values for empty cells and deviation for matched sets of cells.

Write in 714 on Reader Service Card

Specialty gases. Air Products and Chemicals (Allentown, PA) describes its specialty gases and equipment and provides illustrated information on specifications, properties, and applications in its 120-page catalog.

Write in 715 on Reader Service Card

Chemicals. Eastman Kodak (Rochester, NY) catalogs over 4,000 chemicals and lab products for industrial, research, and academic applications, including new reagents and Lab-leader™ analytical standards, with references and product specifications.

Write in 716 on Reader Service Card