Harvey A. Swadlow & Alexander G. Gusev

Nat. Neurosci. 5, 403–404 (2002)

We introduced an error in preparing this article for press. The fifth sentence of the fourth paragraph, “Notably, each of the TC neurons showed strong directional selectivity, but these preferred directions differed over a range of 13°,” should have read “over a range of 135°.”

Miguel A.L. Nicolelis & Erika E. Fanselow

Nat. Neurosci. 5, 517–523 (2002)

The title of this article contained a typographical error. It should have read:

The authors wish to correct the phrase “rostral-to-caudal shift” on page 528, which should read “rostrocaudal shift”. The error occurs twice on this page.
