These typographical errors were introduced during the editorial production and were not part of the authors' original manuscript.

After publication of this article¹, it is noticed that the article contained some typographical errors:

1. In Table 1 caption text, “D2NN” should have been “D²NN,” where 2 is superscript.
2. In the “Materials and Methods” section, “where and β are...” should read as “where α and β are...”.
