Correction to: Nature Reviews Cancer <https://doi.org/10.1038/s41568-021-00431-4>, published online 14 January 2022.

This article was originally published with the title ‘Programmed cell death 1 ligand 1 signals in cancer cells’. This has been corrected in the HTML and PDF versions of the article to reflect the more common usage of the definition of PDL1 as ‘programmed death ligand 1’. In addition, the definitions for the acronyms PD1 (programmed death 1) and PDL1 have been added to the abstract, the introduction and display items of the article.
