In the version of this article initially published, in Figure 4c, the image for the PAPV_{B16}-ICI group at timepoint day 30 was mistakenly duplicated for the same group at days 40, 50 and 60. In addition, during the generation of higher-resolution figures for the Supplementary Information, typographical errors occurred, causing details such as labels and titles to be omitted from graphs, as well as some inadvertent image duplications. A revised Supplementary Information file with the corrected figures has now been uploaded online. For transparency, changes to the Supplementary Figures and to Figure 4c are outlined in the Supplementary Information attached to this notice. The errors have been corrected in the HTML and PDF versions of the article.

Supplementary Information is available in the online version of this notice.
