Correction to: Scientific Reports <https://doi.org/10.1038/s41598-020-80106-6>, published online 13 January 2021

This Article contained errors. In the originally published version, the following statement in the Discussion was inaccurate:

“Qian et al.¹² found that LASIK was more than twice as effective in low ORA group ($\text{ORA/RA} < 1.0$) as in high ORA ($\text{ORA/RA} \geq 1.0$).”

This was now corrected and reads:

“Qian et al.¹² found that LASIK was more than twice as effective in $\text{ORA/RA} < 1.0$ eyes as in $\text{ORA/RA} \geq 1.0$ eyes.”

This change does not affect the conclusions of the Article. The original Article has been corrected.
