Correction: COVID-19 and the academy: opinions and experiences of university-based scientists in the U.S.

Timothy P. Johnson , Mary K. Feeney, Heyjie Jung, Ashlee Frandell, Mattia Caldarulo, Lesley Michalegko, Shaika Islam & Eric W. Welch

Correction to: Humanities and Social Sciences Communications <https://doi.org/10.1057/s41599-021-00823-9>, published online 17 June 2021.

The original paper lacked a clear statement on ethical approval and informed consent. The following statements have now been added to the paper to provide additional clarity for the reader:

Ethical approval

The questionnaire and methodology for this study was approved by the Human Research Ethics committees at Arizona State University (Study #00011868) and at the University of Illinois at Chicago (Protocol #2020-0470).

Informed consent

All individuals invited to participate in the study were provided a statement of informed consent. The informed consent language clearly explained their rights as a research subject/participant. By entering the survey individuals affirmed their consent.
