

Thank you to all of our reviewers in 2019

2530 individual reviewers contributed to the peer review process at Communications Biology in 2019. We acknowledge and thank each of them here.

In its second full year as a journal, Communications Biology received 1642 research article submissions, of which 868 were sent for external review. Each of the 2530 individuals who gave their time to ensure a fair and thorough peer review process are recognized below in alphabetical order by surname. We are truly grateful to all of our reviewers. Journal staff take full responsibility for any misspellings, omissions, or other errors.

We are truly grateful to all of our reviewers
