

Editorial

It is with particular pleasure that I welcome Dr J. T. Hughes, M.D., F.R.C.P., F.R.C.Path. as the second Assistant Editor of our Journal. Dr Trevor Hughes is very well known internationally for his important contributions in the field of Neuropathology and is the author of a standard authoritative book on Neuropathology, 'Pathology of the Spinal Cord'. In particular his interest, researches and writings are on the pathology of spinal trauma. He is a senior member of the staff of the University of Oxford, England and is the past Editor of the Journal of Neurological Sciences and is on the Advisory Board of the important journal 'Brain'.

It also gives me great pleasure to welcome two additional Members to the Editorial Board of PARAPLEGIA: Professor George Fink, M.A., M.D., D. Phil, Director of the Medical Research Council Brain Metabolism Unit in the University of Edinburgh, Scotland. Professor Fink is a most distinguished Neuropharmacologist. Miss Ida Bromley, M.B.E., M.C.S.P. is District Superintendent Physiotherapist at the Royal Free Hospital, London, England and is Editor of 'Tetraplegia and Paraplegia: A Guide for Physiotherapists'. She is a world authority in her special field in physiotherapy.

It is noted that Professor George W. Hohmann, Ph.D. is Professor Emeritus of Psychology in the University of Arizona, U.S.A.

Phillip Harris
Editor