Sparkle inside and out this festive season with Hohoho Grillz

Goldie Inc. have recently launched their brand new range of Christmas grills at a glamorous evening event held at BBQ Grill in Soho, London. The festively themed grills are the first of their kind on the market and will be a great addition to all Hip Hop Christmases.

The new Hohoho Grillz range comes in a variety of styles including the 'Snowflake', containing no fewer than 10,000 sparkling six carat diamonds, the 'Rudolph Grill', made using high quality garnet, and finally, for a bit of fun, the 'Gobble Gobble', where the basic gold 'Goldie Grill' is embellished with ten tooth-sized, turkey crowns allowing you to flash a meaty smile throughout the Christmas season.

The launch event was attended by many well-known UK celebrities, including the entire sparkly cast of Hiply Come Dancing, and also saw a brief appearance by Santa Claus and his Chief Elf Operator, Nick Holly.

Goldie Inc. CEO, Conrad Beam, said: 'We are delighted to launch Hohoho Grillz this festive season. Finally we are able to provide customers, old and new, with the ability to 'dress up' their mouths as well as their outfits for Christmas!'

When asked if he was going to be purchasing a set of Hohoho Grillz, Santa responded that he was going to rely on polishing up his own set of teeth through regular toothbrushing to ensure his oral Christmas sparkle.

It was noted that Mr Claus' oral hygiene appeared to have vastly improved of late and rumours abound that he is eschewing cookies and sweets being offered each Christmas Eve and instead stealing Rudolph's carrots.
